

FORT WAYNE, INDIANA RESEARCH TRIP

For Intermediate Level Researchers

Allen County Public Library Genealogy Center

August 16-22, 2018

Presented by the California Genealogical Society

Join Jane Knowles Lindsey for a research trip for Intermediate level researchers to Allen County Public Library in Fort Wayne, Indiana the largest public genealogical library in the country.

A new format is being planned for this trip. Participants will do independent research but have the opportunity to network with others during the week.

The Allen County Public Library (ACPL) is the home of PERSI (PERiodical Source Index), searchable on Ancestry.com or HeritageQuest. ACPL has over 513,000 rolls of microfilm and 55,000 compiled genealogy volumes, an impressive collection of state and territorial censuses, and many other resources unique to this library. There is a great newspaper archive plus open stacks with many titles unique to ACPL. Intermediate researchers can use the vast collection of material to expand their research. Search their online catalog at: <http://smartcat.acpl.lib.in.us/>.

Cost:

$1198 for a single

$727 for a shared room with another attendee

Extra room nights $151.00 No meals included except breakfast. Dinner venues will be arranged for group meals with separate checks. Airfare not included.

Price includes a tax deductible donation to CGS.
